SECRETS LURK WITHIN THE CORRIDORS OF HARTMANN PAYNE INVESTMENT BANK. IT'S JUST A MATTER OF TIME BEFORE THEY SURFACE.

Hartmann Payne Investment Bank caters for the needs of the rich and super rich. It's also home to a group of brilliant, sexy, funny and confused PAs, whose jobs involve far more than just organising meetings and making coffee.

Like Lucy – the blonde Essex rocket in a killer trouser suit who is worth far more than her secretary salary. And Midge – she's only filling in time before she becomes an international singing sensation. But there's one problem with Midge's plan for worldwide fame; a secret from the past that won't let her rest...

Money makes Nicole's world go round. And men are the means to keep it spinning. Her job is just a way to meet the richest, most eligible men in the country.

Sid is an Oxford graduate. She's mortified that she's somehow ended up working as a secretary. When a chance of a fresh start is offered, will she take it? Or is her appearance not quite as accidental as it first seemed?

But when their friend Grace Darling, the perfect PA, goes missing, the girls suddenly find themselves mixed up in something they never expected – and things really will never be the same again.

Teetering ever so slightly between fantasy and reality, PAs is a sexy, good-looking comedy drama with lashings of style, glamour and gloss and a dark, thrilling story line.
