HUSTLE

THE TEAM OF EXPERT LONG-CON ARTISTS ARE BACK, AS HUSTLE RETURNS FOR ANOTHER SERIES OF SLICK AND SOPHISTICATED CONS.

From the makers of BAFTA-winning Spooks comes a slick, action-packed drama full of humour and intrigue. Hustle follows the fortunes of a gang of five expert con artists let loose on the streets of London and around the globe. They are specialists in the ways of the grifter and all are keen to liberate cash from the amoral and undeserving...

In Series Four, the team lose Mickey Bricks to an overseas sabbatical, so it's time for someone else to lead the gang. When Danny steps up to the plate, can the others convince him that the team needs another member – especially when it comes in the form of street kid Billy Bond?

There are, as always, plenty of 'marks' who are greedy, rude or simply nasty enough to be parted from their cash. Targets include a porn baron, a ruthless nursing home owner, and a charity crook – and that's just for starters. The crew also hit LA and Las Vegas, but when they're not on their home turf, will their audacious attempts catch up with them in the end?
